

GeomCore - outstanding 3D graphics (Technion)

code: COM-0712

GeomCore offers a whole framework that allows three-dimensional geometry to be presented over the World Wide Web. The geometry is presented in an efficient way and allows for a high degree of interaction and collaboration, all in real time. GeomCore's technology can serve as the basis for numerous applications such as MCAD 3D visualization over the Web, 3D icons and collaborative 3D games.
